

Answer Key           Huston Smith, Chapter on Judaism

1. F
2. T
3.    A. Creator, the Other from which he issues.
      B. The Other by which he is confronted.
4.    If it were: A. Prosaic    B. Chaotic    C. Amoral    D. Hostile
5. person
6. monotheism
7. focus
8.    A. amorality
      B. Indifference to humanity
9. God, good.
10.    The Cynics among the Greek Philosophers and the Jains in            Indian religion
11. Chinese religion
12.    one who misses the mark
13. B
14. A
15. F
16. T
17. T
18. Prophetic guilds
19. F
20. F
21. existing society
22. T Last sentence,
23. T
24. A
25. Teaching experience for the Jews, redemptive experience for the world.
26. Bottom of 381, top of 382.
27. F
28. All answers correct.
29. T Bottom
30. Top,

31. No transcendent viewpoint from which the way things are can be criticized.
32. the world's routine
33. first 5 books of the Bible, the law
34. disclosure
35. exodus
36. God of power
God of love
God intensely concerned about the human situation
37. F
38. contracts concern only stated sectors of a life and have definite ending points. Covenants include all of life and continue to death.
39. particularity
40. 398-399
41. cultural pluralism
42. F
43. French Revolution
44. 1948
45. F
46. F
47. F